

Classically silent transmission, (Shaktipat) is the radiance of spiritual power from a Self Realized being. It can be received by anyone whose attention is focused upon Divinity and by the Grace of God alone. Traditionally it involves being in the physical presence of one who has realized the Self, but the most important element in Shaktipat is a mental connection with the energy of the Infinite. Silent Teaching takes place not only in the presence but whenever and wherever one holds a higher power in mind.

Language is an inferior medium of communication; the Self IS all, knows all and requires no verbalization. When one remains without thoughts, understanding arises out of awareness. The universal language of silence shines equally on all, irregardless of the obstructions of thought. Art in its transcendent expression has been the catalyst for such understanding. Since the inception of mankind, rare it is for the capacity to express the ineffable reality of the Self been made available. Rarer still is its expression as Art and its capacity to carry the vibrational energy of Nonduality.

VISUAL SPIRITUAL INSPIRATION

A first in mankind's history, the Grace of Divinity transmuted digitally, undiluted by duplication and untarnishable by time. The capacities of a Visual Effects Artist made subservient to the Holy Spirit. The spiritual power of Silent Transmission made accessible to all who seek the experiential reality of the presence of God.

All products are handmade and contain the presence of truth and love radiating from the source of creation, as the light of Divinity shines through them.
